

AMENDED
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Pursuant to the authority vested in me, I hereby order that effective at 5:00 PM on March 16, 2020 the following rules be put into effect in the 3rd Judicial District ("District") until rescinded:

As hereinafter used, "Assigned Judge" shall refer to the judge assigned to hear the case on and before March 16, 2020. "Designated Judge" shall refer to the judge assigned to hear the case pursuant to this Order (Schedule A and B). "Essential Staff" shall refer to chambers staff of Designated Judges or non-judicial staff as designated by the District Executive.

- Pending eviction proceedings are stayed; no eviction orders shall be signed or served.
- No default judgments shall be granted.
- All foreclosure proceedings are stayed; no foreclosure auctions shall be held.
- All Family Court and all County Court Judges are cross-assigned to the County and Family Courts in all counties of the District; and shall be designated Youth Part Judges.
- All Court proceedings will occur in the locations described in Schedule A and presided over by the judges listed therein unless otherwise approved by the Administrative Judge.
- Maximum occupancy of ALL courtrooms, waiting rooms and meeting rooms in Court Facilities shall be the lesser of 30 people or half ($\frac{1}{2}$) the posted room occupancy per code.
- Naturalization Ceremonies, wherever they occur, shall comply with the room occupancy limits stated herein and only those being naturalized will be allowed to attend.
- All deadlines established per judicial directive (including those contained in scheduling orders, service dates and "local rules") that occur during the pendency of this Administrative Order shall be extended for a period of 90 days from the date of the stated deadline, unless further application is made.
- After 5:00 p.m. on March 16, 2020 only Designated Judges and Essential Staff may report to the courthouse for work unless approved by the Administrative Judge.

- "Essential matters" is defined as urgent applications or cases in the following categories: Article 81 cases, Mental Hygiene Law applications (Retention Cases/Medication Over Objection cases), certain urgent Orders to Show Cause, Extreme Risk Protection Orders, Applications for Orders of Protection, Isolation and Quarantine matters and any other matter determined to be essential by the Assigned Justice or Designated Justice in consultation with the Administrative Judge.

- All Temporary Orders of Protection shall be extended 90 days by the designated Supreme Court Justice, unless further emergency application is made.

Superior Court Criminal Cases

- Any trial in which jeopardy has attached will continue.
- All non-essential matters are administratively adjourned until on or adjourn until a date on or after April 30, 2020 (for defendants not in custody) or on or after April 15, 2020 (for defendants in custody). The adjourned date shall be determined by the Assigned or Designated Judge - Essential Staff shall be responsible for notifying attorneys or pro-se litigants of the adjourned date.
- "Essential Matters" includes arraignments, new and/or extended Orders of Protection and any other matters determined to be essential by the Assigned Judge or Designated Judge in consultation with the Administrative Judge.
- Currently seated Grand Juries may continue until the expiration of their terms. Thereafter, a District Attorney may make application to the Administrative Judge for the impaneling of a new Grand Jury.
- The Accessible Magistrate procedure (for Adolescent Offenders) currently in place shall continue.

Treatment Courts/OSP

- Treatment Courts and Opioid Stabilization Parts will be handled by the designated City Court Judge or the designated County Court Judge in counties with no City Court.
- Treatment courts will continue to the extent appearances are deemed essential in acute cases by the Designated Judge in consultation with the Coordinating Judge of Treatment Courts and the Administrative Judge. All calendars and appearances shall be staggered so as to comply with room occupancy requirements as stated above.
- Essential Staff designated to work in these Courts shall be responsible for notifying attorneys or pro-se defendants of the adjourned dates.

Family Court

- All non-essential matters are administratively adjourned until a date on or after April 30, 2020 (to be determined by the Assigned or Designated Judge - Essential Staff shall be responsible for notifying attorneys or pro-se litigants of the adjourned dates).
- "Essential matters" shall be defined as urgent Juvenile Delinquency proceedings, Child Protective Proceedings where there is an imminent risk of harm to a child, Family Offense matters, emergency support matters, and any other matters determined to be essential after application by the designated judge to the Supervising Judge. The Supervising Judge, in consultation with the Administrative Judge, shall permit a matter to proceed if warranted.
- All Temporary Orders of Protection, and all Remand/Removal Orders under Family Court Act Articles 3, 7 and 10, issued in all of the Family Courts of the Third Judicial District that are due to expire on a date on which the matter may not be heard due to extraordinary circumstances, including, but not limited to, the current COVID-19 or other public health emergency, are hereby extended under the same terms and conditions until the date the matter is re-calendared and heard, unless the order is terminated or modified by a Judge or by a Referee assigned to the case.
